SPRING STYLES AT THEIR BEST

We have here a variety that had to please the woman the Spring Season, and a radieal change in models, materials and shades, we have auticipassed unusual demand and stocked accordingly.

We invite every woman in this vicinity to inspect these beautiful garments.

SUITS $15 to $27.50 COATS $7.50 to $16.50

Trimmed Millinery $3.00 to $6.50

Men's Spring Clothing

Our Spring Suits for men embrace some new and novelty effects. Right up to the minute in style and of the usual reliable Bren

SUITS $15 to $25 HATS $2 Up

GATELY & BRENNAN, 29-31 Shetucket St.

ISSUES EMBARGO NOTICE No More Shipments of Inflammables In Different Branches of Service for or Explosives.

The measure was described at the general offices of the road merely as precautionary and in anticipation of a general railroad strike which, however, was regarded as improbable.

CONNECTICUT PATENTS.

Stonington Man Gets Patent On Warping Machine.

List of patents issued by the United States patent office to citizens of Connecticut follows:
James E. Allonby, Stamford, emergency device for automobile springs.
George Amborn, Chapinville, boring toel holder. Joseph C. Andrews, New Britain, polisiting body for burnishing barrels. Harry B. Arnold. New Britain, coach-bed. Samuel E. Bradley, Stonington, warping machine. John Donnelly, Branford, scraping tool. Boris Dubl. Bridgeport, button feeding device. Mortimer B. Ganung. Forestville, anow-plow. Joseph W. Gibney, gasvalve. Alfred C. Gilbert, New Haven, commutator. Thomas C. Johnson, New Haven, holt-action shoulder arm. Joasph F. Lamb, New Britain, electrical

Ohildren Cry BASTORIA

574 HARVARD MEN HAVE TAKEN PART IN EUROPEAN WAR Great Britain and France.

Louisville. Ky., March 15.—The Louisville and Nashville railroad late today ordered, effective at once, an absolute embargo on shipments of inflammables, explosives and other dangerous articles, and on livestock and perishables of all descriptions for destinations which cannot be reached by noon Saturday.

The embargo was extended to dead freight for destinations beyond Louisville and Nashville rails, but will be accepted for points on its own lines subject to loss or damage due to desage.

Champion Hens At Glasgo.

In the little village of Glasgo James Brown is boasting of having the best laying hens and pullets of the season. Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Brown received fifteen eggs from their sixteen pullets, three of these eggs were of an extraordinary size double yolk.

Mrs. Brown also got six beautifut eggs from her nine two-year-old hens. Mr. Brown offers the peninant to any one among his friends who can show a better lot of hens and pullets that can average more egs in any week.

lany Matters of General Interest Acted Upon in the House-In the Senate the Judiciary Committee Reported Unfavorably the Petition Concerning the Estate of William Keyser, Late of This City.

Train Service Abandonment.

The judiciary committee made unfavorable report on the petition of the New York. New Haven and Hartford Railroad company for authority to discontinue the operation of trains between Saybrook Point and Fenwick Station. The report was accepted and petitioner given leave to withdraw. A bill had already passed in the house giving the company authority to do all that was specified in the petition.

The committee or railroads reported unfavorably the resolution to raise committee to investigate into the conditions of travel on the steam railroads of the state. Report accepted and bill rejected. No Signal Changes.

No Investigation.

The railroad committee reported unfavorably a bill that would change the present system of signals used by street railways. Report accepted and bill rejected.

Text Books Free.

Text Books Free.

A bill concerning text books in public schools was reported unfavorably by the committee on education and the bill rejected. It was explained that in many places there was free text books, and that it was quite probable that the matter would be cared for automatically, and that there was no need for legislation. Another bill in this respect was rejected, which provided that the purchase of text books be made by the state board of health, and that guarantee be given that the bookseller does not sell at a lower rate to anyone else.

The committee on railroads reported favorably on a bill requiring passengers in this state to carry at scholarship rates any student attending a public grammar, high or normal school. Calendar.

About Bridges.

The committee on railroads reported favorably on a public grammar, high or normal school. Calendar and rivers reported favorably on a substitute bill requiring the approval of the highway commissioners to the payment of $750 for the care of drawbridges before the money is paid by the compettoller. Calendar.

No State Hymn,

Farmington, reporting from the com-mittee on education, reported unfavor-ably on the act to adopt a state hymn. It was explained that no one appeared before the committee in favor of the bill. and that the committee not having heard the hymn, could not determine whether it sounded good or bad. Report accepted and bill rejected.

Consideration of Salaries

Municipal Gas Plants. The committee on cities and boroughs, reported unfavorably, and the bill was rejected, which would require municipally owner gas and electric companies to report to the public

A Blanket Bill. Mr. Waitt, of the committee on roads, rivers and bridges, stated that a blanket bill would be introduced, covering automobiles, bridges and forries, in explanation of the unfavorable reports concerning these matters. There was a large number of bills and they were all rejected.

Bill Board Ads. The committee reported unfavorable the bill concerning taxes for advertis-ments, which referred especially to bill boards. Report accepted and bill Rights that were lost by reason of crime, were restored to: Mariano Anastatio, of New Hayen, money under false pretenses: Antonio Di Marco, of Stamford, murder.

Stable For State Horses. The house concurred with the senate in the passage of a bill to appropriate $10,000 for the erection of a stable to house horses owned by the state. The stable to be erected adjacent to the state armory and arsenal. It was explained to be an emergency measure and to provide for the horses now roaming on the grounds pear the armory.

Trolley Petitions Rejected. A big batch of bills from the Con-necticut company for additional charter rights in several cities in the state, including Norwich and New London, were unfavorably reported and petitioners given leave to with-draw. It was explained that these matters were covered in a general law.

Contractor to Selectman. The military committee reported unfavorably a bill that would divide the responsibility, of placing soldiers' monuments, between the contractor and selectmen. Bill rejected.

Military Matters.

given leave to withdraw. (The bill in reference to Sunday athletics will be covered in a bill to be reported later.)

The bill fixing the salary of the clerk of the court of common pleas at $2,500 and $500 for the criminal side was referred to the committee on appropriations on the motion of Senator Klett.

Stanley Railway Co. The evannities on railroads reported favorably on the bill incorporating the Stanley Railway company of New Britain to build a trolley line from Stanley quarter in that town to West Hartford with a capital of $100,000 and naming George A. Quigley, George M. Landers, James M. Curtin, John A. Pilgard and E. O. Kilbourne as incorporators. All the incorporators except Mr. Pilgard, who resides in Hartford, are residents of New Britain. Calendar.

Calendar,
The committee on railroads reported favorably on a bill requiring public service corporations engaged in the business of transporting passengers in this state to carry at scholarship rates any student attending a public grammar, high or normal school. Calendar.

On motion of Senator Boyd, the obalrman of the committee on appropriations, a bill was passed under suspension of rules, making an appropriation of $10,000 for the erection, under the direction of the adjutant-general, of stables for horses on the arsenal grounds. The bill was transmitted to the house.

Legislative Souvenir. Consideration of Salaries.

The committee of the judiciary reported favorably the act concerning salaries, and recommended reference to the appropriations committee. It was so ordered.

Municipal Gas Plants

Again That Cavalry Horse. In curcurrence with the house the senate referred to the committee on appropriations the bill appropriating $175 to Troop B association to compensate it for the loss of a horse. The bill was read at the request of Senator Hunt. Senator Neebe thought it was a bill concerning the board of control "which were coming to feel control "which were coming so fast a sto bankrupt the state," he said.

Judiciary — Favorable on substi-tute bill to require contractors for public buildings to file bonds for sat-isfactory performance of work; cal-endar. Unfavorable on bills concernendar. Unfavorable on bills concerning workmen's compensation law, intimidation and boycotting, to make uniform laws relating to the employment of children; bills rejected.

Labor — Unfavorable on bill prohibiting the use of the suction shuttle; bill rejected.

Roads. Bridges and Rivers—Unfavorable on bills concerning a motor vehicle law, the use of vehicles on highways and the appointment of a motor vehicle commissioner; bills rejected. (Senator MacDonald stated that the bills unfavorably rejected would be taken care of in a bill to be reported later.)

The committee on education reported unfavorably on the petition of the city of New Britain for $15,200 for general school purposes. Bill rejected.

The committee on cities and boroughts and boroughts are successful to the city of New Britain for $15,200 for general school purposes.

rejected.

The committee on cities and boroughs reported unfavorably on the bill giving general power to cities and boroughs; bill rejected.

Unfavorable reports were received from the committee on the judiciary on the bill to re-establish the office of factory inspector and concerning the compensation of workmen injured in course of employment; bills rejected.

The committee on roads, bridges and rivers reported unfavorably on a proposed amendment to the law which gives control of certain bridges over the Connecticut river to the highway commissioner; bill rejected.

Unfavorable reports were received from the committee on the judiciary on bills regulating the appointment of medical experts by compensation commissioners, and concerning weights general assembly shall authorize the expenditure of $100,000 for the purchase of a site and the preparation of plans, etc. The board of control is to pass on the site and the comptroller is authorized to purchase the site. The committee says it found all suggested sites unsuitable. It recommends that the committee be continued two years. The report was referred to the committee on state prison.

Passed: Allowing the city of Hartford to lay four miles of improved pavement without petition; to prevent evasion of fares on vehicles held out to the public for hire; creating the office of tax commissioner in Bridgeport, etc.; that meetings of the Connecticut Children's Air society shall be advertised; making selectmen of members of school boards; to allow projecting ornaments to remain on buildings on streets to be widened, with particular reference to Church street widening in Hartford; authorizing Darien to issue school bonds to the amount of $75,000.

Meridan -- Dr. Edward J. Murray as 15th students. These poems were respectively students. The students are respectively students. These poems were respectively students. The students are respectively studen Adjournment.
The senate adjourned to Friday at 11.15.

BRIEF STATE NEWS

New Haven.-A long standing dis-

Meriden.—Dr. Edward J. Murray, assistant superintendent at the Meriden sanatorium, has taken the superintendency of the Minnesota state sanatorium at Worthington, Minn and has concluded his work here. His successor has not been appointed. Dr. Murray is a graduate of Holy Cross, John Hopkins university and the University of Colorado. He was appointed to the state sanatorium last September.

Hartford, Robert S. Gillett, son of Prof. Arthur L. Gillett, of the Hart-ford theological seminary and a grad-uate of Amherst college in 1916, wrote the poem, "Robert W. Service," which the poem, "Robert W. Service," which of Moose, now that It has reached the 200 mark, has decided to still further increase the membership.

Waterbury—The announcement is made by Manager Paul Prentsel that every penny of the proceeds from the concert by Eugen Yeave, the cole-brated Belgian violinist, in Buckingham hall on the night of Tuesday March 27, will be turned over to the total Red Cross.

The licorice G

ANNETTE KELLERMAN, whose great photo play, "A Daughter of the Gods," will be seen this year by millions, and who is appearing in person at the New York Hippodrome, says: "I certainly do like the flavor of your Adams Black Jack Chewing Gum. Besides, the licorice in it is highly beneficial to the throat."

